You are invited to come share your thoughts and concerns about your community’s resiliency against natural disasters and leave your comments for the final decision-making process.

About the Bladen-Columbus-Robeson Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan

The counties of Bladen, Columbus, and Robeson in coordination with their participating municipal jurisdictions, are finalizing a regional hazard mitigation plan that covers the three-county area. The Bladen-Columbus-Robeson Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan identifies local policies and actions for reducing risk and future losses from natural hazards such as floods, severe storms, wildfires, and winter weather.
